

2nd Italian-Slavic Legal Theory Seminar

September 30 – October 02, 2021

Dubrovnik (IUC)

Thursday, September 30

13:30 – 15:00 Welcome reception (food & beverage)

First panel: Normative Systems, Logic and Argumentation. Legacy of Berislav Žarnić

Moderator: Matija Žgur (Rome, Italy)

15:00 – 15:30 Gabriela Bašić Hanžek (Split, Croatia)

Normativity, Logic and Communication in Berislav Žarnić's Philosophy of Law

15:30 – 16:00 Giovanni Battista Ratti (Genoa, Italy)

Normative Systems, Rationality Requirements, and Deductive Closure

16:00 – 16:10 Break

16:10 – 16:40 Andrea Barca (Genoa, Italy)

The Concept of Permission Within the Set-theoretical Approach to the Logical Theory of Normative Systems

16:40 – 17:10 Michał Araszkiewicz (Krakow, Poland)

Conceptual Structures in Legal Reasoning: where Heuresis Meets Justification

17:10 – 18:10 Discussion

Friday, October 1

Second panel: Normativity, Proportionality and Concept of Law

Moderator: Ivana Tucak (Osijek, Croatia)

10:00 – 10:40 Giorgio Pino (Rome, Italy)

Normativity for Positivists

Commentator: Monika Zalewska (Lodz, Poland)

10:40 – 11:20 Chiara Valentini (Bologna, Italy)

Levels of proportionality

Commentator: Giuseppe Rocché (Palermo, Italy) TBC

11:20 – 11:30 Break

11:30 – 12:10 Miodrag Jovanović (Belgrade, Serbia)

Prototype Theory of Concepts and Analytical Account of Law - Methodological Crossroads

Commentator: Giulio Itzcovich (Brescia, Italy)

12:30 – 14:00 Lunch

14:00 – 16:00 Guided city tour of Dubrovnik

Saturday, October 2

Third panel: Legal Interpretation and Functions of Law

Moderator: Andrej Kristan (Genoa, Italy)

10:00 – 10:40

Marcin Matczak (Warsaw, Poland)

Naturalising Legal Interpretation - a new approach

Commentator: Nicola Muffato (Trieste, Italy)

10:40 – 11:20

Mario Krešić (Zagreb, Croatia)

In Search of the Functions of the Legal System: Axiomatic and Methodological Stage

Commentator: Zuzanna Krzykalska (Krakow, Poland)

12:30 – 14:00

Lunch
