

MAX PLANCK INSTITUTE
FOR THE STUDY OF
CRIME, SECURITY AND LAW

LEGAL HERMENEUTICS

WORKSHOP

20-22 JULY 2023

Legal hermeneutics could be deemed a broader notion than just legal interpretation. When legal practitioners cope with the law, they often do much more than merely interpret it. Arguably, they engage in legal construction, apply the law to a case at hand, and exercise discretion. In this spirit, the workshop aims to take this more comprehensive perspective of legal hermeneutics seriously by inviting its participants to address these various hermeneutic activities in legal adjudication.
